Presidents Message.

A message from PSPL, "There are many events that can help celebrate, educate, and raise awareness about Probus in your local community and PROBUS MONTH OCTOBER is one of them.

This year's theme is Celebrating Community and Companionship in Probus". Seems to be a busy time for winter holidays, our Norfolk Island travellers are just back and now some are away on the Coober Pedy and Red Centre Tour. Some Lucky Members are having extended caravan holidays, and some are off to Bali.

Thanks to our July Door Keepers Betty M and Dianne O' (not to mention the bossy Greeter) and also to our Morning Tea Helpers Irma and Kerry, our Outings and Holiday Convenor Julie S, our Billiard's Convenor Winston, our Welfare Officer Faye, our Birthday Card Convenor Julie C our Take it or Leave it Table Manager Betty L, our Speaker Organisers Helen and Bob, our Library book Organiser and induction Folder preparer Eric, and Frank our Visitor Meet and Greeter, and of course our Committee. I haven't included every Helper, but it just reminds us of how much work happens to make our Club a happy place to be.

I don't know about you, but Barrie and I enjoy watching the televised Tour de France bike race which might explain why we are tired because it finishes about 2 am.

I asked the Guru 'what is the meaning of life 'and he replied 'have you tried Googling it? Sign on the Garage," Today's Special". - buy 2 items - pay for both'. I think I threw my back out sucking my tummy in So these three little mice are blind and the farmer's wife comes along and cuts off their tails with a carving knife? who writes this stuff Stephen King? See you at our 1st August Meeting -

In Friendship, Rae
