President's Message.

Almost there, Winter solstice Friday 21st June at 6.50am, better remember because I think that would be a great question for our August Trivia. Why do I remember this fact? Because it's our daughter's birthday on 22nd June, the shortest day which gets dark early, longest night, and it starts to get lighter after that.

Well, 2 of our June Visitors are now new Members. Dianne and Paul Lindsay will be coming to our Tuesday Lunch this month at Carlucci's in Templestowe - so a big WELCOME to you!

Unfortunately, due to unforeseen circumstances we did not have a Speaker at our June Meeting, but Nola battled on through her illness and prepared some very very very difficult questions for our Trivia Quiz. Thanks Nola.

Our Walk to Hurstbridge with Lunch at The French Lettuce had to be cancelled but will probably be re-scheduled at a later date.

As I write this, late as usual (surely Ross will be turning grey), tomorrow Julie has arranged an interesting Outing Tour of St. Paul's Cathedral with lunch after at Young and Jacksons Hotel.

Happy June Birthdays to Barrie Tully, Judy Dunn, and Joan Derrick. Joan now confirms positively that it will be her 90th Birthday. CONGRATULATIONS.

A scammer called my Grandmother and said he had all her passwords. She got a pen and said "thank goodness for that, what are they"?

Don't forget to put your suggestions in the Blue Box, also ideas for Speakers. See you at our 4th July Meeting.

In Friendship, Rae.

Rae, Betty, Helen, Ross, Ian. Julie, Marianne, Stephen.
